

027.621
u582bom
1940/41

THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS
BOOKS FOR THE ADULT BLIND

Books in Moon

Placed in the Distributing Libraries

July 1940—June 1941

THE LIBRARY OF THE
AUG 16 1943
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

DISTRIBUTING LIBRARIES

Copies of the books on this list, purchased by the Library of Congress under a congressional appropriation, have been placed in the following distributing libraries :

ALBANY	OKLAHOMA CITY
New York State Library	Oklahoma Library Commis- sion
ATLANTA	PHILADELPHIA
The Kriegshaber Library for the Blind, Carnegie Library	Free Library of Philadel- phia
AUSTIN	PITTSBURGH
Texas State Library	Carnegie Library of Pitts- burgh
CHICAGO	PORTLAND, OREG.
Chicago Public Library	Library Association of Portland
CINCINNATI	SACRAMENTO
Cincinnati Public Library	California State Library
CLEVELAND	SAGINAW
Cleveland Public Library	Michigan State Library for the Blind
DENVER	ST. LOUIS
Denver Public Library	The Henry L. Wolfner Me- morial Library for the Blind, St. Louis Public Library
DETROIT	SALT LAKE CITY
Wayne County Library	Salt Lake City Public Li- brary
FARIBAULT	SEATTLE
Minnesota School for the Blind	Seattle Public Library
HONOLULU	WASHINGTON, D. C.
Library of Hawaii	National Library for the Blind, Inc.
INDIANAPOLIS	The Library of Congress
Indiana State Library	WATERTOWN, MASS.
JACKSONVILLE, ILL.	Perkins Institution Library
The Illinois Free Circulat- ing Library for the Blind
LOS ANGELES
Braille Institute Library
NEW ORLEANS
New Orleans Public Library
NEW YORK
New York Public Library

ABBREVIATIONS

BIA—Braille Institute of America, Inc., Los Angeles, Cal.
MS—Moon Society, London, England

027.621
u 582 80m
1940/41

Books in Moon

JULY 1940-JUNE 1941

DESCRIPTION, TRAVEL, ADVENTURE

PARKMAN, FRANCIS. The Oregon Trail. MS 1940. 8 v.

One of the classics of western narratives, the account of a journey undertaken in 1846.

SAINT EXUPÉRY, ANTOINE DE. Wind, Sand and Stars. Translated by Lewis Galantière. BIA 1941. 5 v.

The author-aviator expresses his credo of life as a high adventure in vivid, mystical sketches of flyers and flying experiences.

FICTION

BRAND, MAX. Gunman's Gold. MS 1940. 5 v.

The story of a gold mine in the Owens Desert and of Lee Swain, who murdered two men to get it.

CARR, JOHN DICKSON (CARTER DICKSON, pseud.) The Burning Court. MS 1940. 7 v.

An English mystery thriller of the most hair-raising sort, with an extremely diabolical ending.

COBB, IRVIN S. Old Judge Priest. BIA 1941. 8 v.

Homely, humorous tales, centering around an elderly judge in a small southern town who meddles most effectively in the affairs of his neighbors.

CLEMENS, SAMUEL L. (MARK TWAIN, pseud.) Huckleberry Finn. MS 1940. 7 v.

The classic story of American boyhood; merry and tragic adventures of Huck Finn, who ran away from a drunken father to find his fortune on the Mississippi.

DOUGLAS, LLOYD C. Disputed Passage. MS 1940. 9 v.

Symbolic and moving story of the bitter personal struggle between an eminent doctor and one of his young students which ends in mutual respect and perfect friendship.

GOUDGE, ELIZABETH. The Sister of the Angels. BIA 1941. 2 v.

A pleasant Christmas story, with a mystical note, about the restoration and completion of four beautiful frescoes in the small cathedral town of Torminster. The characters chiefly concerned are a child of eleven, her father and a young painter.

existing

29 Dec 43

16 Aug 43 dir. dep. 1940/41 contin.

GREY, ZANE. Western Union. BIA 1941. 7 v.

A novel based on the romantic history of the Western Union Telegraph Company and its early struggles to connect the eastern and western United States by telegraph.

HARDY, THOMAS. The Woodlanders. MS 1940. 8 v.

The lives of the villagers of Little Hintock, England, and in particular that of Marty South, the spar-maker's daughter, who loved and lost Giles Winterbourne.

JEWETT, SARAH ORNE. The Country of the Pointed Firs. BIA 1941. 5 v.

The coast town of Dunnet Landing, in eastern Maine, as seen by a summer boarder.

VANCE, ETHEL. Escape. BIA 1941. 10 v.

A fast-moving, realistic novel about a German actress, condemned to death by the Nazis, and the exciting plot hatched for her deliverance.

MAGAZINES

MOON MAGAZINE. MS. Monthly, June 1940-July 1941. 12 v.

THE LIBRARY OF THE
AUG 16 1943
UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS